

WHO WE ARE

The Friends of St Bride Library is a user group incorporated into St Bride Foundation. We represent the Library's users and help to determine its future direction

St Bride Foundation is guardian to St Bride Library and the Bridewell Theatre. The Foundation's registered charity number is 207607

St Bride Library was established in 1891 to serve the printing and graphic arts trades. It holds unrivalled collections of books, periodicals and artifacts covering the history and practice of printing, graphic design, letters, typography and much more

The Library welcomes students, researchers, graphics professionals and the public. No entry fee is charged for use of the Reading Room; access to items from closed collections is by application to the Library staff

Learn more about the Library online: www.stbride.org

The Library's programme of conferences, evening talks and other events is published online. Use the web site to subscribe to our email notifications and stay up to date
